DIVORCE CASES.

Unhappy Couples Want the Marital Bonds Broken in Twain,

Applications for divorce are becoming quite numerous in the District of Columbia and as a rule the applications come from the female side of the family. Ida E. Owens and Estelle L. Perkins asked for a dissolution of their mar-riage vows yesterday. The latter alleges cruelty, infidelity and lack of support, while the former attributed the whole cause of her trouble to drink. Both reck to assume their maiden names. Harriel Dowell has reconsidered her application for a divorce, filed early in February, and will make an effort to have pleasant home relations in the fu-fure. Her husband became penitent, and she agreed to pay the costs so far

Art by Electric Light,

Again this evening will the gems of art in the Corcoran Gallery of Art be exhibited beneath a glare of electric light to the citizens of Washington and those visitors who may care to visit this famous institution. There will be no charge for admission, and it is safe to say the capacious building will be crowded with those who have not in the daytime an opportunity to witness the valuable paintings exposed in the Cable Cars Running.

The giant machinery of the Seventh street cable car line having been com pleted by the addition of the all-im portant "clutch," the cars are running regularly to day after a short stoppage. The "clutch" is intended to prevent accident by throwing the machinery out of gear in the event of any additional pressure being placed upon the

A Republican Meeting. A well-attended meeting of the union of Republican State associations was held at Monumental Hall, Pennsylvania avenue, near Second street, last even-ing. At the next meeting, on the evening of May 5, the question, "How Shall Honest Elections and a Fair Count be Had in the Southern States" will be generally discussed by the mem hers and certain Congressmen.

Boston Symphony Orchestra. The announcement of the last concert of the Boston Symphony Orchestra will attract general attention. It will occur on Wednesday evening next at Lincoln Music Hall. Madame Steinbach Jahns comes with a fine reputa-tion from Leipsic, and is also high in the good opinion of Mr. Nikisch, her former conductor there.

The offerings of Belt Line Railroad stock were larger than usual. Two round lots of 100 shares each brought 70 per share. On Tuesday 25 shares sold for 724.

Arlington Insurance stock, which on Monday went for 190, on a sale of 5 shares, advanced to 195, and, for 5 more, 200 was paid. The closing bid was 195, with an offering at 205. At 200 this stock pays 4 per cent. clear of taxes.

There was a free selling of People's Insurance stock. Seven lots in all changed hands—the smallest 30 shares, the largest 200; in all 670 shares, not-withstanding the price held firm, at 54 bid, 5; asked.

American Graphophone stock sold at 13½ for 100 shares, with an offering at 13½.

There was good bidding for Chesapeake and Potomoc Telephone stock at 74, with an offering at 75, but no stock changed hands.

Editor Critic: We would respectfully ask THE CRITIC why it is that the daily ravelers on the cars should be tormented with a new noise? Is there not mented with a new noise? Is there not enough already—doors slamming, street-boys yelling, besides the unavoidable roar of traffic going on—without the useless adjunct of that hideous jangle now made by that advertising bell on the car line? It is "cruelty to animals," to say nothing of the poor conductors who have enough to do anyway in keeping a lookout for do anyway in keeping a lookout for passengers—their egress and ingress. Furthermore, no one ever looks at the The Americans are said to be the most nervous people on earth, and cer-tainly we have enough to make us so. The Republican Campaigners, To-day a call was issued for a meeting of the executive committee of the Na tional Republican Committee. It will be held in this city on Wednesday, May 7. The members of this committee are M. S. Quay of Pennsylvania, J. S. Clark-son of Iowa, W. W. Dudley of Indiana, J. Manchester Haynes of Maine, Samuel Fessenden of Connecticut, Garret A. Hobart of New Jersey, J. Sloat Fassett of New York, A. L. Conger of Ohio, George R. Davis of Illinois, and M. H. De Young of California. There is one vacancy, caused by the death of Colonel

Goodloe of Kentucky. A Peculiar Accident,

An employe of W. B. Moses, the furniture dealer, by the name of James B. Law, sustained a very peculiar frac-ture of the right shoulder yesterday af-ternoon. While attempting to lift a piece of furniture he very suddenly sank to the floor and for a time suffered the most intense pain. Dr. Mid-dleton of the Emergency Hospital was sent for and treated him. The fracture he says was caused by a sudden wrench of the shoulder while lifting furniture, and it is one of those cases that is seldom met with in the practice of physicians.

An Old Soldier's Death. Last evening it was reported that the body of John Cass, an old soldier and an inmate of the Soldiers' Home, was found in the lake at the head of Whitney avenue. The opinion seems to very generally prevail both among the officers and companions of Cass at the Home that he committed suicide. It is known, however, that he has been somewhat dissipated of late and he may have accidentally fallen in the water while under the influence of liquor. Coroner Patterson was notified, but did not think it necessary to hold an inquest.

JUDGE MILLER'S ADVICE.

Only Bad Boys Congregate on the

"Boys of your age ultimately make the corner loafers and fill up the reform schools and jalls," was what Judge Miller said to Harry Dodson, a 14-yearold colored boy, who was before him this morning, charged with disturbing the peace and quiet of Georgetown. "I be conciencious, I be, your Honor, and want to do what's right," pleaded the prisoner. "That may be true, my boy," replied the Judge, "but you must keep out of had company and stop congregating on street corners with boys who are known to be thoroughly bad."

Harry was permitted to go home, with the understanding that in the fu-ture he must be a better boy and desist from disturbing the Georgetown people. ORGANIZED FOR CHARITY,

An Interesting Meeting of St. Mark's Friendly Longue, The annual meeting of St. Mark's Friendly League, a charitable organization of Episcopal children, was held last evening at St. Paul's Church. The surpliced choirs of St. Paul's and St. John's churches of this city, St. John's Church of Georgetown, St. John's Chapel and St. Mark's Church were consolidated for the occasion, and fur-nished excellent music. In the chancel were Revs. Alfred Harding, rector; A. Floridus Steele, Jacob A. Regester and J. M. E. McKee, all of whom participated in the services at different
